

AUDACIOUS grace

PTM CONFERENCE

October 3–6, 2017
Asheville, NC

an Overview of PTM Conference 2017...

Join us for the 2017 PTM Conference, centered around the topic of Audacious Grace. Our keynote speaker, Fil Anderson, will lead us in reflecting on the Audacious Grace we are invited to both receive and give away, in three plenary sessions. Author, speaker, spiritual director, Fil is also on staff at St. Mark's Church and has experience in international member care.

FIL ANDERSON

PTM is a great place to network and promote your work and ministry. Thursday evening, Oct. 5 has been set aside for a Meet & Greet event, featuring a Ministry Fair and Affinity Groups. Come make some connections!

PRE-CONFERENCE

October 2–3, 2017

Join us one day before the conference for in-depth training in these valuable topics:

Experiencing and Designing Soul Care Retreats for Global Workers –Nancy Todd Ph.D.

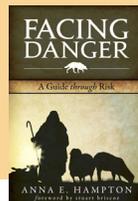

Attendees will both take part in a retreat, and then practice planning one of their own. Participants will be equipped to plan and facilitate Soul Care retreats for the global workers they serve.

Risk Assessment and Management

–Neal and Anna Hampton

A companion to the book, Facing Danger, this RAM training provides biblical insights on determining calling; strategies for endurance, decision-making, and discernment; a scalable risk management protocol; communicating risk; and much more.

WORKSHOPS

The PTM Conference provides training and opportunities to dialogue about timely topics relevant to the member-care field. We have a great line-up of workshops for this year:

HAVE A ♥ FOR MEMBER CARE?

PTM provides a pastoral atmosphere where care-givers can encourage one another, be ministered to, and sharpen their skills. We strive to bring together all involved in member care—from local churches, mission agencies, and care-giving organizations—for a unique opportunity to influence and strengthen each other. Don't miss it!
