

Women Serving Women

Module Name: Women Serving Women

Module Description: This module puts together the essential components for developing a leader, including an emphasis on knowing one's own strengths and weakness and on building an effective team. It builds a biblical framework for women-to-women ministry including identifying needs, resources, challenges, and opportunities for creating and sustaining meaningful service to others. Spiritual gifts, temperaments, and effective spiritual mentoring are explored in the context of building a cohesive ministry team for whatever ministry God has called a woman.

Required Prerequisite: Facilitator Relational Learning, Developing a Discerning Heart, and Discovery Bible Study

Format: Eight-day intensive or 48 hours in an alternative format

Module Rationale: This module will inspire and promote confidence in women called to minister to others. Along with the skills and spiritual formation that participants gain through the Facilitating Relational Learning, Developing a Discerning Heart, and Discovery Bible Study modules, we are confident that women will be more prepared and competent ministers in the local church.

Learning Outcomes: Participants will be able to

- understand the various ways that God has used women to minister in the Bible
- understand the biblical charge to mentor and disciple those who are younger in the faith
- appreciate a biblical understanding of discipleship
- explore practical ways to disciple women in one's cultural and ministry context
- develop a biblical understanding of spiritual gifts and how one's own gifts contribute to the church
- understand one's own temperament and how to effectively work with temperaments that differ from one's own
- explore the concepts of teams and interdependence as they relate to ministry
- understand how to navigate challenges in ministry, especially focusing on biblical conflict resolution and spiritual warfare
- develop a biblical view of leadership
- explore how to develop an effective ministry that serves others in the local church
- understand how to empower leaders in the body of Christ

Required texts: Women Serving Women workbook

Preparation work: Participants will receive the workbook approximately 12 weeks before the module session, which will afford enough time to complete all the assignments ahead of arrival. There will be approximately 36 to 48 hours of preparation time needed.

Instructional methodology: An adult dialogical discussion format is used, including opportunities to practice the skills learned and application of creative learning methods.

Completion requirements: At least 80% of the assignments and all practice lessons must be completed.

Participation requirements: Leadership modules are targeted towards women working in a ministry setting who desire to have an impact on others for Christ. A high level of English fluency is needed.

Women Serving Women is an Entrust Women-to-Women Ministry Training (WWMT) course module. www.entrust4.org